* During the summer, each middle school student is required to read the novel which is assigned to his/her grade level. The extra credit book about the saint is optional and is for extra credit. For all summer reading, please do the following:

1. read your book(s) carefully,
2. take notes about each chapter and write down questions you may have,
3. be ready to discuss the book(s) in class, complete writing assignments in response to the novel and be prepared to make presentations about the book(s). If you have any questions, please e-mail Mrs. Umana at mumana@sainttimothyschool.org.

Important additional assignment: Each middle school student is required to maintain a binder with protective sleeves which will contain his/her 2010 Summer Journal/photos/drawings. I will post the guidelines for this project on my website.
